

TRINITY SUNDAY

Most Holy Trinity

I SMILE WHEN Trinity reflections begin with how hard it is to explain the Trinity and then try to do just that. I promise not to do that... well, maybe just a little bit.

I see today's readings being about my relationships with others, with God and with my own self. For me, this feast is about healthy relationships. Relationships God sees as healthy are not always what I recognize as healthy. God is in the cloud of my unknowing, merciful and gracious. God is in my moments of love and peace, in right relationship. And yes, God's promise to us of eternal life is made real in the clouds and the relationships.

How will I remember in moments of doubt and unknowing, and moments of peace and right relationship, that God is present? How do I draw my inner source of self from the core – from God – and reach out to those around me? Daily prayer, including the Eucharist, community and outreach are elements that help me to remember, and to re-direct my focus on relationships with those around me. I trust I am not alone on my spiritual journey, and maybe my journey may help others on theirs.

This week, may the moments that challenge and the ones that console help us recognize God in our midst. That could be the hardest part of all.

(Reflection of Sr. Susan Kidd, OMD, from Living with Christ)

Dear Parishioners:

Happy 75th Anniversary! I am delighted to share in this great and historic moment in the history of our parish.

It is a great honour, as well, to welcome His Eminence Thomas Cardinal Collins, the Archbishop of Toronto, for this special Anniversary Mass. As well, I welcome former pastors, Associate Pastors, and visiting priests, and Religious Sisters.

In a special way, we also welcome three priests who were ordained from this parish: Fr. John Vetere, Fr. Bob O'Brien and Fr. Edward Murphy.

I welcome all parishioners both present and past members of this parish, as we celebrate this joyous occasion.

I thank the social committee that was formed to ensure a wonderful reception following the Mass, as well as those who worked on the banners, historic picture galleries, and the outside tent and events for families.

Fr. Pat

Construction Update

The initial paving of the parking lot will commence this week. Despite the many rainy days, and other set-backs, we are making great progress. The new sidewalks to the emergency exit doors on each side of the church are also to be done shortly, as well as the re-curbings of the whole parking lot. New light posts have been ordered and will be installed within a few weeks (there is currently temporary lighting in the parking lot). As work progresses, we thank all parishioners for their support and patience.

Daily Mass, Monday to Friday, will continue to be held at St. Cyril School, at 7:30 a.m., 18 Kempford Blvd.
