

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

2nd Sunday of Easter – Devine Mercy

IN TODAY'S GOSPEL, Thomas' act of doubt reveals an important aspect of faith. Faith is rooted not only in a supernatural virtue, but in the experience of inclusion.

Imagine how Thomas felt when the other disciples joyfully told him of their encounter with the risen Lord. The pain of exclusion can be heard in his declaration, "I will not believe." Thomas has missed out on one of the most important events his companions had ever experienced. The disciples have been elevated to a new level of awareness about Jesus. Thomas, however, has not. He feels excluded.

His is a normal human reaction. We don't like to miss out on the action. Absent from some great event, we may seek to minimize the experience of those who were present. But in doing so, we erect walls around our hearts and barriers between ourselves and others.

Jesus breaks through Thomas' feeling of exclusion. He welcomes Thomas by inviting him to put his hand in Jesus' side. "Do not doubt but believe," Jesus says.

Thomas has been given the gift of welcome, Jesus has healed Thomas' wound, the wound of being left on the outside. Perhaps we can do as Jesus did with those we see sitting on the sidelines. It may strengthen their faith – and ours. (Reflection of Glen Argau, from Living with Christ)

APRIL 28, 2019

Dear Parishioners:

I am still reflecting on the inspirational liturgies held in Holy Week, culminating with the great feast of Easter.

Thank you to our liturgical ministers (lectors, choir, ushers, Eucharistic ministers, servers) and those who assisted them. A special thanks to Maria Amodio for decorating the Church and to Sr. Eva Janning for her work with the R.C.I.A. The names of all who were received into the Church at Easter will be listed in next week's bulletin.

This past week marked the One Year Commemoration of the Yonge Street tragedy. As you know, St. Edward's was one of the 6 locations involved in the commemoration events. It was such a beautiful evening commencing with prayer and followed with dinner. Our mayor of Toronto, John Tory was present as was the D'Amico family (parents, relatives and friends of Anne Marie D'Amico, who died that day).

I would like to thank all who assisted in helping to plan and make this such a memorable evening.

Fr. Pat

Living the Gospel by welcoming newcomers to Canada....

Rashida endured years of domestic abuse while living in Egypt. Fearing her husband would abuse their children, she successfully applied for refugee status in Canada. Rashida arrived in Toronto, not knowing the language, what to do, or who could help. Fortunately, she met an Arabic speaker who told her about Catholic Crosscultural Services (CCS). CCS helped her navigate the immigration process and access the resources she needed. "CCS saved my life," Rashida says. "Today I have money of my own, an apartment, and my children are finally safe and happy."
