THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

3rd SUNDAY OF ADVENT

“O COME, o come, Emmanuel” opens the Advent hymn, gathering voices in hope and praise. It harkens back to Isaiah’s time over two-and-a-half millennia ago when God’s chosen people called on Him to “ransom captive Israel.” Isaiah’s words sought to comfort a weary people. He proclaimed His message to them and now to us. Bring good news to the oppressed. Set the captives free. Bind up the broken-hearted. Be faithful “until the son of God appear” and then righteousness will spring up before all nations.

Paul tells us to rejoice always, praying and giving thanks continually. “Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.”

Our waiting cannot be a passive act. From down deep in each of us individually and stretching out to the far ends of our global society, we, as followers of Jesus, know what is right. We know that kindness, caring and love must prevail. Our voices cry out in a wilderness of deception and greed, hatred and abuse. Like John before us we can be witness testifying to the light. As the Baptist did, we in this time and place can by our actions “make a straight the way of the Lord.”

O Come, Desire of Nations bind all people in one heart and mind; bid envy, strife and quarrels cease; fill the whole world with heaven’s peace.
