THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

TRINITY SUNDAY

ST. MATTHEW TELLS us that en route to a special meeting with Jesus 40 days after His resurrection, some of the disciples doubted. Yes, God's family members do doubt; sitting in Mass we too might question Jesus' omnipotence.

How then did so many disciples come to be martyred for proclaiming the Christian Gospel? What shifted Jesus' followers from doubt to death-defying evangelization? Jesus answered their doubts and questions by acknowledging the Holy Trinity.

The disciples needed to know who Jesus was, what they were to do, and where He would be when they needed Him. Jesus, as God the Son, told them of His authority in heaven and on earth. Then, speaking for God the Father, He counselled them to go to all people and make them disciples as well, baptizing them into, and teaching them the ways of, God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. "I am with you always..." was Jesus' reassurance of His constant presence, prefiguring the coming of God the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

Jesus came near to His eleven on a mountain to reveal the might of the Trinity – in the same way Jesus comes near to us in Holy Eucharist, to reassure and empower us by the Three in One and One in Three. Today are we prepared for Christ Jesus' missa meeting, His sending us out into the world, for Mass?

(Reflection of Beverly Mlaug, of Living with Christ)

Living the Gospel by providing for those in need...

"Without you, ShareLife could not fulfill its mission to live the Gospel by providing for those in need. Together we are making a real difference! My prayer is that we may continue to respond to God's love by going forth from ourselves to seek the good of others."

— Cardinal Thomas Collins

CHURCH SCHEDULE DURING LOCK-DOWN

The Church will be closed for daily Mass during the lock-down. Msgr. Pat and Fr. Dave will continue to offer Mass, which you can access virtually through our parish website at: <http://www.stedward.ca>

Confessions are by appointment only; kindly email the parish to request an appointment. Funerals, weddings, and baptisms, can still be held with a limit of 10 people (including priest and possible server).

On weekends, the Saturday 4:30 p.m. Mass (ONLY) will be live-streamed in order to accommodate the Communion Services on Sunday. However, this live-streamed Mass can be viewed all weekend through the parish website. A FLOCK NOTE message will be sent to all parishioners, via email, each Tuesday which will link you to the EVENT BRITE schedule for the times of the weekend communion services. Keep in mind, each service is limited to 8 persons (the presider and the person who greets you on arrival complete the number 10 capacity per service). The Communion services will be held every 15 minutes, each lasting about 5-7 minutes. This provides the opportunity for people to arrive and leave in a safer way. Parishioners must register in advance and no walk-ins are permitted.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue to do our best to serve you in these most challenging times. Let us pray for one another and for an end to the pandemic.

PRAYER IN TIME OF COVID

Gracious God, you who are the author of all life, and who desire the well-being of all people, during these dark days of Covid19, increase in us, respect and reverence for all human life.

Grant restored health to the sick,
comfort and hope to the dying,
strength to family members, friends, relatives,
clergy and volunteers,
renewed energy to hospital workers, PSWs,
nurses and doctors,
and perseverance to all in the health care professions.
Grant wisdom to scientists for the development of effective and moral vaccines, discernment and right judgment for legislators,
aid to the discouraged, poor and vulnerable,
courage and justice for front-line workers,
and keep always in our minds the vision of the true common good of all the world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Robert Kasun CSB

Auxiliary Bishop Central Region, Archdiocese of Toronto

CATHOLIC FAMILY SERVICES OF TORONTO'S ONLINE COUNSELLING SESSIONS
