THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parishioners:

A number of people have asked for a copy of this prayer I recently shared at Mass. It was given to me by my late aunt, Maureen, before my Ordination. The prayer was contained in a small prayer booklet, entitled "Walk in my Presence," prepared by the Irish Redemptorists in Galway. I hope it brings you peace.

ANOTHER MORNING PRAYER

*God of my life,
I welcome this new day.
It is your gift to me,
a new creation,
a promise of resurrection.*

*I thank you for the grace of being alive this morning.
I thank you for the sleep that has refreshed me.
I thank you for this chance to make a new beginning.*

*This day, Lord,
is full of promise and opportunity:
let me waste none of it.
This day is full of mystery and the unknown:
help me to face it without fear and anxiety.
This day is blessed with beauty and adventure:
make me fully alive to it all*

*During this day
keep me thoughtful, prayerful, and kind.
May I be courteous and helpful to others,
and not turned in on myself.
Keep me from any word or deed
that would hurt, or belittle, or destroy.
and may the thoughts of my mind
be pleasing in our sight.*

*When night comes again,
may I look back on this day
with no grievance or bitterness in my heart.
And may nobody be unhappy
because of anything I have done
or anything I have failed to do.
Lord, bless this day for me and for everyone.
Make it a day in which we grow
to have the mind of Christ your Son.*

*Lord Jesus Christ, Friend and Brother,
may we know you more clearly,
love you more dearly,
and follow you more nearly,
day by day. Amen*

Synod on Synodality

Pope Francis has launched the Synod on Synodality: a two-year global process of listening to the faithful that will help the church reflect on how we can do God's will in the world today. The comments of the faithful will ultimately be discussed at a meeting of the bishops in the Vatican in 2023. To learn more about the Synod on Synodality and to share your thoughts, please visit:
