THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

IF THE READINGS today were scenes in a movie, it would be quite dramatic. Keeping up with the characters and the content would be challenging.

The first reading shows Elijah calling Elisha, where Elisha seems unsure of what to do. Elijah allows him to finish what he is doing first. Paul, in the second reading, is outlining the perpetual tension Christians carry being in this world but not of this world.

The Gospel is where it all comes together. Jesus has His face set toward Jerusalem, knowing this is where His ministry will end with suffering and death. We are introduced to the would-be followers. On the surface, what they say seems to sound like excuses. Yet we know these are valid concerns – responsibility and care for family, burying the dead, helping with the family business – these things matter. Jesus’ response is designed to help them (and us) discern their commitment.

Discipleship is no small matter and will demand much from us. To follow Jesus, we must go beyond sentimentalism. Discipleship involves choice and commitment, which are born out of discernment. Discernment can only happen when there is authenticity. Jesus is inviting us into authenticity, helping us stay grounded in who we are and whose we are. If we met Jesus on the road, what would our response be?

(Reflection of Adriana Rencich, Hamilton of Living with Christ)

A PRAYER FOR GRADUATES

Lord God, we ask your blessing on all who will be graduating from primary school, high school, college and university.

May the gifts you have bestowed upon them be used for your glory and the good of all.

May they remain close to you and be your witness in the world, whether in times of joy or struggle. May your Holy Spirit guide them always and be their comfort and peace.

Bless their teachers, families, and all who have inspired them to share their God-given talents in all their future endeavors.

We offer this prayer through Christ, our Lord. AMEN

Children's Liturgy of the Word Resources

A reminder that Resources for children of our parish are available on our website for downloading each week. Thank you to Melissa Shek and Martin Yeung for their continued support of this Ministry.

St. Vincent de Paul

Thank you to all who participated in last week's "Bundle Up" Sunday. The truck was filled to capacity.

Msgr. Pat wishes to thank the youth leaders who helped to keep the Friday night EDGE Program running throughout this past term. In particular, Msgr. wishes to thank seminarian, Jeremy Zou, Keith Villaneuva, Josh Lai and Juan de Dios, for their leadership in organizing all the Friday night "themes". They were assisted by a wonderful group of volunteers. The EDGE Program will conclude for the summer this Friday.
