14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

EVER FEEL LIKE a lamb among the wolves? These days our wolves aren't people who have never heard of Jesus. They are our family, friends and colleagues who have tried the faith and found it wanting. What do we tell someone who has heard it all before? What can we say if they think they already know about God and don't need him?

It might be tempting to shake off the dust and move on, because it seems no matter how we argue, persuade or preach – we cannot convince. But Jesus never told the disciples to convince anyone. He sent them to speak peace, to seek out and be with those who suffer. Who in our community suffers symptoms of apathy, jadedness or despair? Who hungers for a sense of peace, purpose and belonging?

It's not up to us to convince them. But we are called to invite them... and to keep inviting them. Jesus wants us to remind those sheep in wolves' clothing of who they truly are and of who Jesus truly is for them. We don't need to be biblical scholars, articulate debaters or even persuasive preachers to do that. All we need is a willing heart to join the psalmist and say, "I will tell what He has done for me."

And, thankfully, may the Holy Spirit do the rest.

(Reflection of Caroline Pignat of Living with Christ)

A PRAYER FOR GRADUATES

Lord God, we ask your blessing on all who will be graduating from primary school, high school, college and university.

May the gifts you have bestowed upon them be used for your glory and the good of all.

May they remain close to you and be your witness in the world, whether in times of joy or struggle. May your Holy Spirit guide them always and be their comfort and peace.

Bless their teachers, families, and all who have inspired them to share their God-given talents in all their future endeavors.

We offer this prayer through Christ, our Lord. AMEN
