IN TODAY'S FIRST reading, we read description of love in the midst of chaos. It's Pentecost and it's terrifying. Fire. Howling winds. The followers who had assembled in Jerusalem were gathered in this place. They must have been talking loudly among themselves in fear and confusion, each in their own language. Imagine the cacophony!

In this mayhem, what did God do? He used the spectacle to get their attention and then spoke to each in their own language. One voice, many languages. For what purpose? To share the good news, person to person. God was saying, here in the midst of bedlam, "I am calling you. I love YOU."

Fast forward to Sunday Mass in 2025, which is reverent worship in peaceful place. Let this time and place get your attention. I know I have to check myself so as not to forget what is really taking place. Unlike Mass, life is noisy and our culture is chaotic. Maybe your life is both. With the psalmist, consider the majesty of God. His works in nature are astounding. When God sends forth His spirit, He renews the face of the earth. The psalmist ends with this supplication: May the Lord rejoice in His works! We are the work of His hands and God wants us to know His love in personal. He is talking to us.

(Reflection by Johanne Brownrigg, of Living with Christ)

Year of Prayer Video Series

In advance of the Jubilee Year taking place in 2025, the archdiocese has created a video series which will highlight the importance of prayer in our lives. The series will focus on the seven petitions of the Lord's Prayer as found in the fourth part of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The first video, an introduction to the Year of Prayer by Archbishop Leo, is available for viewing now on the archdiocesan website as well as on the archdiocesan YouTube channel at <http://www.youtube.com/@archtoronto>.

Archbishop Leo's Message/Reflection On the month of Mary

The month of May is dedicated entirely to the Mother of Jesus, Mary Most Holy. Archbishop Francis Leo has written an inspiring message as a way of further highlighting a stronger devotion to Mary in our personal lives and within the faith community. The Archbishop's reflection will be sent this weekend to all parishioners on the parish Flocknote. Parishioners who do not receive Flocknote may sign up by simply providing the parish office with your email. You may also view the Archbishop's reflection at: www.archtoronto.org

During this month of May, Msgr. Pat will be also offering Special Masses at the parish schools in honour of Mary.

Victoria Day Long Weekend
