THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Most Holy Trinity

TODAY WE CELEBRATE Trinity Sunday. In the readings, we catch glimpses of some attributes of the Trinity. These glimpses can aid in our understanding of one of the mysteries of our faith and can inform our daily living.

While the readings have a common theme – God’s eternal and steadfast love – the focus of the Gospel is discipleship. Here Jesus calls us to take up our identity as children of God and to share in the life of the Trinity. We may feel unworthy and hesitate to accept this divine invitation. However, we have nothing to fear. God is love and our only task is to love God in return.

This is easier said than done because love demands things of us. Love requires a high level of self-giving and engagement with others. We know this from the example of Jesus. But, with the help of the Spirit, we are able to imitate, though imperfectly, Trinitarian love in our relationships with others and with creation.

I like to think of the Trinity as a perfect relationship. One that is informed by mutual respect and consideration. One where love flows freely and where each person delights in the others. We are so very blessed that God calls us to share in this life of grace.

In advance of the Jubilee Year taking place in 2025, the archdiocese has created a video series which will highlight the importance of prayer in our lives. The first video, an introduction to the Year of Prayer by Archbishop Leo, is available for viewing now on the archdiocesan website as well as on the archdiocesan YouTube channel at:

Securities as a Charitable Gift Option

One of the most financially sound ways to support the Archdiocese of Toronto is with the gift of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds). When you donate stocks, mutual funds and other publicly traded securities to a registered charity, you pay no capital gains tax and receive a tax receipt for the full amount of the gift. It means a great tax break for you and more significant support of your Parish and various archdiocesan charities such as ShareLife, St. Augustine's Seminary, The Shepherds' Trust and many others. To donate securities, follow this link: <https://bit.ly/GiftsOfSecurities> where you will find "How to Gift Securities Info Sheet" and a "Letter of Direction." For more information, contact our office at development@archtoronto.org.
