12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

HOW APPROPRIATE is the Gospel reading of today. With the multitude of storms, winds, droughts, floods and fires in the last few years, we can easily cry out with the disciples: “We are perishing.”

Yet we know the greatest mistake is to let fear take over our lives, even though we, like the disciples, live with many worries and unanswered questions. We know we must live by faith, which is the ability; to trust even when despair knocks at our door; to profess a firm love in a God we sometimes cannot find, knowing at the same time that God is always with us and never abandons us.

When the disciples experienced the calm after the sea and the wind obeyed Jesus’ words, they were filled with awe even though they who had spent so long with Jesus still wondered: “Who can this be?” Sometimes we too continue to ponder this question in our own lives and seek for answers as we struggle to live our faith.

Our own experience of awe can be a source of encouragement for us to continue to work for justice, to know the joy and wisdom of helping each other through stormy times, knowing peace is not far behind.

(Reflection by Joan Doyle, of Living with Christ)

New Associate Pastor

Archbishop Francis Leo, Archbishop of Toronto, has appointed Rev. Andrew Taylor as an Associate Pastor, to St. Edward the Confessor Parish, effective July 1, 2024.

Fr. Taylor was born in Barrie, Ontario, and grew up in Aurora as the fourth of eight children. He was homeschooled during most of his elementary school years and had the opportunity to attend and serve daily Mass for those years. Starting in Grade 9, he attended Brebeuf College in Toronto.

After completing Grade 12, in 2011, he began formation for the priesthood at Serra House while studying philosophy at St. Philip's Seminary, in Toronto. He spent one year at the Newman Centre, and then entered St. Augustine's Seminary in 2015. His first assignment was to St. Michael's Cathedral. He was then sent to Ottawa to assist at the Nunciature.

The Holy Father has ambassadors in every country, called nuncios, and the Nunciature in Ottawa has priests assisting in specific duties. Cardinal Collins appointed Fr. Taylor to this ministry, February 1, 2022 to assist as the English language secretary.

Fr. Taylor is looking forward to his new ministry at St. Edward's Parish, and Msgr. Pat warmly welcomes him to the pastoral team. Please pray for Fr. Taylor in this time of transition. May God Bless him and his priesthood.
