13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE FAITH OF Jairus is inspiring. He believed Jesus could heal his daughter and sought Him out for her physical healing.

To receive Physical healing is a great gift. How much more does the Lord desire our spiritual healing so that we can receive God’s salvation which has been won for us by our Lord Jesus Christ. Our freewill acceptance of God’s love snatches us out of a destructive domain and takes us into the land of the living, where we will have a life-long journey towards holiness.

In tandem with spiritual healing is another kind of healing: inner healing, which can be found when we seek God in prayer. If we are candid with our Lord about what is going on in our hearts and ask Him to ease our fears, hurts, burdens, poverty, and inadequacy, He will heal us and bless others through us. As we let God purify and sanctify us, our spirit will in time become pure and we will want to love only Him, the Creator. Then we can be effective instruments of God’s healing, peace and power.

Let us pray that God in His divine love will increase our faith in Him, and give us the grace to persevere in loving Him and serving others for His sake.

(Reflection by Sr. Michael Penelope Nguyen, of Living with Christ)

New Associate Pastor

Archbishop Francis Leo, Archbishop of Toronto, has appointed Rev. Andrew Taylor as an Associate Pastor, to St. Edward the Confessor Parish, effective July 1, 2024.

Fr. Taylor was born in Barrie, Ontario, and grew up in Aurora as the fourth of eight children. He was homeschooled during most of his elementary school years and had the opportunity to attend and serve daily Mass for those years. Starting in Grade 9, he attended Brebeuf College in Toronto.

After completing Grade 12, in 2011, he began formation for the priesthood at Serra House while studying philosophy at St. Philip's Seminary, in Toronto. He spent one year at the Newman Centre, and then entered St. Augustine's Seminary in 2015. His first assignment was to St. Michael's Cathedral. He was then sent to Ottawa to assist at the Nunciature.

The Holy Father has ambassadors in every country, called nuncios, and the Nunciature in Ottawa has priests assisting in specific duties. Cardinal Collins appointed Fr. Taylor to this ministry, February 1, 2022 to assist as the English language secretary.

Fr. Taylor is looking forward to his new ministry at St. Edward's Parish, and Msgr. Pat warmly welcomes him to the pastoral team. Please pray for Fr. Taylor in this time of transition. May God Bless him and his priesthood.

A special thanks to Monica Figueredo, President of the CWL, and her Executive, and all members who helped to organize the event which attracted more than 100 people. It was a great success! Many new members joined the CWL as well. A great way to end the month of June! Congratulations to all involved in its success.

Year of Prayer Video Series

In advance of the Jubilee Year taking place in 2025, the archdiocese has created a video series which will highlight the importance of prayer in our lives. The series will focus on the seven petitions of the Lord's Prayer as found in the fourth part of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The first video, an introduction to the Year of Prayer by Archbishop Leo, is available for viewing now on the archdiocesan website as well as on the archdiocesan YouTube channel at:
