14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

WHEN I WAS a young child, my mom used to send me out to the corner store for bread, and I used to protest that I wouldn't go without my sister. I felt safer going with her than going alone out in the unknown.

Why am I sharing this?

In today's Gospel, the Lord appointed the seventy to go ahead of Him in pairs and make known His word and His presence. As we grow up, the unknown becomes known and we learn to distinguish the sheep amongst wolves. With the presence of God we are no longer afraid to do what we are called to do. God wants us to work for His kingdom, to spread the good news of the Gospel, so others can join. The Gospel invitation, "Peace to this house!" is reassuring, therefore: all that is needed is an open heart to listen. This journey may be difficult, and sometimes we may need to shake off the dust so we won't be detoured by our failure and work to keep our peace.

God calls us to do this critical work not for our glory, but for everyone to know His generosity. God knows His children and we will be recognized through our love and deeds for others, sharing His peace. Blessed be God forever!

(Reflection of Uldiko O'Daene of living with Christ)

Are You Considering the Catholic Faith?
Registration is Now Open

We have already received a number of applications from persons who are interested in starting a process to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church. Because of this record number of requests, we wish to inform that we are opening the registration process much earlier this year. Our plan is to actually hold some initial classes over the summer months before the start of the regular classes in September.

If you wish to register for the R.C.I.A. program (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), please visit our parish website and locate the section on “Registration Forms” and fill in the form and send to the parish. One can also pick up a form from the parish office.

Please note a personal interview with one of the priests is required first, before entrance into the R.C.I.A., in order to ensure all required documents are completed, and to answer any questions about the process.

For those wishing to meet with a priest to discuss this process further, please contact the parish office at stedwardtheconfessorno@archtoronto.org or 416-221-9131. Applications are now open.

“That Blessed Upper Room”
Pastoral Letter from Frank Cardinal Leo

Frank Cardinal Leo, Metropolitan Archbishop of Toronto, has released “That Blessed Upper Room,” a pastoral letter inviting the faithful of the archdiocese to reflect together on the significance of The Upper Room in our lives, our families and in our communities of faith as this story is so directly connected to pivotal events in the life of Jesus and of the early Church. The letter is divided into nine chapters, drawing on dimensions of our Catholic Christian life. In the words of Cardinal Leo:

“This resource can be the object of a parish sharing group or an informal gathering of friends. The reflections can be used as inspiration for summer reading or for Advent or Lenten activities or for a personal retreat. You can, for instance, take one question per day and let it accompany you or set some quiet time per week, a short 15 minutes, to read a paragraph and ask yourself a question that is proposed. Studied and reflected upon individually or in community, whether in families, parishes, schools and religious houses, I pray that this small contribution will help readers and faithful come to a more profound sense of faith, a more mature relationship with the Lord and to a transforming experience of grace.”

A short video introduction and the full pastoral letter can be accessed by visiting:

www.archtoronto.org/thatblessedupperroom. Feel free to share the letter with family and friends.
