A reading from the Gospel according to Mark 9:2-10

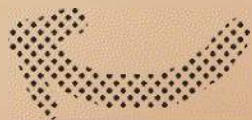

Jesus took Peter, James, and John up on a high mountain. While they were there, a change came over Jesus. And as they were watching him, his clothes became a dazzling white – whiter than anyone could wash them. Suddenly, they saw Moses and Elijah talking with Jesus. Peter spoke up and said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here! Let us make three tents: One for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

This Gospel speaks of the Transfiguration of Jesus

Peter really didn't know what to say, because like James and John, he was amazed and frightened by what he was seeing. Then the shadow of a cloud came over them, And a voice came from the cloud saying: “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”

Suddenly, they didn't see Moses and Elijah anymore. They only saw Jesus. As they came down the mountain, Jesus told them not to tell anyone what they had seen Until he had risen from the dead. So they didn't. But they kept wondering what Jesus meant when he said that he would rise from the dead.

Why do you think Moses and Elijah disappeared?

CAN WE TALK ABOUT IT

Today's Gospel is one of the few times that we see Jesus as more than a person. The Gospel says that Jesus' clothes and appearance changes completely. It is a wonderful sight, and the disciples are scared, amazed and shocked - all at the same time.

If you can think of something more amazing, let's hear about it.

Today reminds us why Jesus came to us as a person. If Jesus came in all His glory, we would be just like the disciples - too amazed to do anything. Jesus shows us God in a way that we can understand and follow. But on days like today, He also shows us that He is also so much more.

It's important to remember how Jesus is both.
