A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to the mountain in Galilee just as Jesus had said.

When Jesus met them there, he said,

“God has given me all the power and authority of heaven and earth.

Now I am sending you out to preach to all the nations.

I want you to make disciples and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Teach them to keep my commandments and do all that I have taught you.

And I promise you that I am with you always –

Yes, to the very end of the world.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Why do you think Jesus met his disciples on a mountain?

Jesus speaks of Baptism in the name of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. Is this similar to your Baptism?

CAN WE TALK ABOUT IT

Today's Gospel speaks of the Trinity - the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Often we hear how the Trinity is a mystery - how three can be one, and one can be three. But also important is how the Trinity is an important part of our beginning, at our Baptism, as Jesus says in our Gospel today. The Holy Trinity carries us from the first sacrament and remains with us through our whole lives!
