

G O S P E L

A reading from the Gospel of John 13: 31-33a, 34-35

After Judas left the room where the disciples were gathered, Jesus said,
“Now my glory begins and when I receive glory, God receives glory. My friends, I am going to be with you for only a little while longer. But I am giving you a new commandment: Love one another. You must love one another just as I have loved you. Everyone will know that you are my disciples if you love one another.”

CAN WE TALK ABOUT IT

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives the disciples a new commandment. He asks them to "Love one another" - just as Jesus has loved YOU!

When you show your love to other people you also show that you are follower of Jesus. How fantastic!

What are some ways that you can show your love for others? Here are some ideas:

- (1) Be kind to your friends
- (2) Share your toys with your brother or sister
- (3) Help your parents by setting the dinner table
- (4) Pray for those who are sick
