A reading from the Gospel of John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:
"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.
But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,
he will guide you to all truth.
He will not speak on his own,
but he will speak what he hears,
and will declare to you the things that are coming.
He will glorify me,
because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Who is the Spirit of truth?

What will Jesus give to his disciples?

CAN WE TALK ABOUT IT

Today's Gospel is quite tricky. Jesus tells the disciples He has more to say, but He won't tell them. He tells them to wait for the Spirit of truth, the Holy Spirit, to come and reveal all.

In a way, we need to wait for the Holy Spirit as well. We need the Holy Spirit to guide us, to act through us and help us be good.
